

Professional Coaching Qualification for Headteachers who want to get the best from themselves as leaders as well as commitment from the staff in their schools

"This course has taught me new skills that are going to be invaluable in terms of running my current school and the potential future one."

Nigel Stewart, Headteacher

Extend your career in education, or take on a new career as a professional coach, with the ILM Level 5 Certificate in Coaching & Mentoring

Benefits include:

- It will provide you with the best internationally recognised coaching qualification
- It will support you to grow as a leader.
- It will help you to manage your time better.
- It will help you to get the very best from your staff.
- It will reduce any stress you feel in your role.
- It will open doors for you professionally both in schools and beyond.
- It will bring even more satisfaction to your role as a leader.
- It will help you to deal with complexity.
- It will support you in obtaining and maintaining outstanding at Ofsted.

Programme includes:

- Four days of face-to-face training
- Course manual and memory stick with resources
- One-to-one and on-going support
- All assessment costs
- ILM Level 5 Professional Course Certification
- Meals during the training days
- Two key coaching textbooks
- All the resources you need to succeed

Dates: 4 days TBA

Times: 9am to 5pm each day

Venue: TBA

Cost: £1860 (inclusive of VAT)

"Highly professional training, with theory mixed with practice to provide an interactive experience."

Paul Griffiths, Headteacher

Find out more about this opportunity

Call Tony on 07919 045 429

Email tony@tonyswainston.com

TONY SWAINSTON

Tony has dedicated his working life to studying, understanding and applying powerful leadership and coaching principles across a range of organisations within the education, public and private sectors. He has experience of training teachers in over 20 countries around the world.

