

ELC Approved Course - Centre Number 7474

Leadership & Management Qualification for Service Personnel and Service Leavers who want to get the best from themselves and their future

"A professional course delivered by professionals". SSgt Pat O'Kane.

Prepare yourself for a new career with the ILM Level 5 Certificate in Leadership & Management

This is a Professional International Leadership & Management Qualification, certified through Tony Swainston Ltd as the approved ILM centre, for those that want to get the best from themselves and the people they work with. It will further develop an existing military skillset in empowering and leading others, whilst it is also a valuable qualification that will assist with future career progression. This training programme offers excellent value for money and provides a balanced approach to both the theory and practice of effective coaching.

You will gain a Level 5 qualification in Leadership & Management, which is broadly equivalent to degree level standard as determined by Ofqual and the QCF (Qualifications and Credit Framework).

Programme includes:

- Four days of face-to-face training
- One-to-one and on-going support
- External assessment costs
- ILM Level 5 Professional Course Certification

And ILM units on:

- Managing for Efficiency & Effectiveness
- Developing & Leading Teams
- Becoming an Effective Leader

Dates: May 29th & 30th and July 3rd & 4th 2018

Times: 9am to 5pm each day

Venue: Leeds, Headingley Carnegie Stadium

Cost: £1820 inclusive of VAT

"An excellent course that provided the confidence to move forward in my career and access qualities and potential that had remained untapped for years". Sqn Ldr Andy Mewes RAF.
