

ILM Level 5 Certificate in Leadership and management

Are you in the military or leaving the military soon?

If yes, then this is a professional and international leadership qualification for you.

“A professional course delivered by professionals.”

SSgt Pat O’Kane

Prepare yourself for excellence.

With this world respected qualification.

This is a Professional International Leadership Qualification.

Certified through Tony Swainston Ltd as the approved ILM Centre, for those that want to get the best from themselves and the people they work with. It will further develop an existing skillset in empowering and leading others, whilst it is also a valuable qualification that will assist with future career progression.

Great training.

This training programme offers excellent value for money and provides a balanced approach to both the theory and practice of effective leadership.

You will gain a Level 5 qualification.

Which is broadly equivalent to Degree level standard as determined by Ofqual and the QCF (Qualifications and Credit Framework).

The programme includes:

- Four days of face-to-face training
- One-to-one and ongoing support
- Personal feedback on all assignments
- External assessment costs
- ILM professional certificate in

Dates:

To be confirmed

Times:

9am to 5pm each day

Venue

To be confirmed

Cost

£1820 including VAT

ELC Approved Course: Centre Number 7474

Approved
Centre

Don't worry if these dates don't work for you.
I run courses up and down the country.
Get in touch and I can give you the details.

"An excellent course that provided the confidence to move forward with a career in leadership and access to qualities and potential that had remained untapped for years."

Meet your trainer

Tony Swainston

I have dedicated my working life to studying, understanding and applying powerful coaching and leadership principles across a range of organisations within the public and private sectors. Over the past 20 years I have had the pleasure and opportunity of working in over 20 countries training people.

I am passionate about leadership and coaching and I have experience of successfully taking hundreds of highly satisfied people through the ILM level V qualification.

To find out more about this opportunity:

Tony:  (07919) 045429

 tony@tonyswainston.com